

Press Release

Geske Immobilien as of now a full member of Colliers PropertyPartners

Berlin, July 19 2006

Even before the trial partnership period has expired the Berlin company Geske Immobilien GmbH has become a full member of Colliers PropertyPartners. The “engagement period” agreed on 1st July of last year has been shortened considerably, since the collaboration has already proved to be economically sensible and profitable for both sides. As of now Geske Immobilien too will operate under the Colliers umbrella brand name.

“We are very pleased that we’re now able to colour in Berlin on our map as part of the territory we cover. As a result of this we at Colliers PropertyPartners are in a position to operate nation-wide, especially when serving international clients“, explains Renate Köbel, managing director of Colliers PropertyPartners GbR with press responsibility, as she talks about the development of the relationship. Managing director Kristina Geske also draws a positive conclusion. Geske sums up the collaboration so far: “It’s not only the increasing turnover and the contacts at many levels which have helped us economically to make a forward leap. It’s also the exchange of information and ideas with our new colleagues which has enriched the quality of our consulting.”
