

Clifford F. Lynch

Main 901.375.4800
Direct 901.312.5768
Fax 901.415.6810
clynch@colliersws.com

Colliers Wilkinson Snowden
3644 Winchester Road
Suite 101
Memphis, Tennessee 38118

Business

Cliff Lynch of C. F. Lynch & Associates has provided management advisory service in logistics since 1993. He was Vice President - Logistics for The Quaker Oats Company and President of Trammell Crow Distribution Corporation prior to embarking on his consulting career. He has authored many articles (can be read regularly in "The Fast Lane" column of DC Velocity) as well as two books on logistics outsourcing. As an affiliate real estate broker in Tennessee, his background in logistics adds another facet to the offerings of Colliers Wilkinson Snowden.

Education

University of Chicago, MBA
University of Tennessee, BS

Business Affiliations and Accreditations

Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (past president)
American Society of Transportation & Logistics
Warehousing Education and Research Council
Editorial Review Boards, Journal of Business Logistics, International Journal of Physical Distribution and Logistics Management
Supply Chain Management Review

Professional Accomplishments

Among his awards are the CLM Distinguished Service Award, Traffic Management Magazine Professional Achievement Award, University of Tennessee Department of Marketing and Transportation Distinguished Alumnus, President's Award for Outstanding Contribution to the AST&L, 1992 Salzberg Memorial Medallion, 1997 AST&L Outstanding Transportation/Logistics Executive, 2000 AST&L Chairman's Award of Excellence, and 2000 - 2001 e-Business & e-Supply Chain Executive.

Community

Cliff is a director and past chairman of The Food Bank of Memphis, and is a member of the Regional Logistics Council of the Memphis Area Chamber of Commerce.