Colliers International Welcomes New Hires

– Four Team Members Join Colliers Philadelphia This Summer/Fall –

September 21, 2020 [Philadelphia, PA] – Colliers International in Philadelphia is pleased to announce the addition of three new associate hires and a senior property manager, bolstering capacity and service within Colliers’ industrial team, our fast-growing retail division and property management.

“While the reaction is often to contract at times of economic downturn, we choose to elevate service - not reduce. Our clients require more insight and attention at every step to navigate decision-making in a global pandemic. We are proud to have maintained all of our full-time employees while adding critical capacity at this challenging time.” shared Doug Sayer, President and CEO of Colliers in Philadelphia.

“We empower our new recruits to do their best work every day - growing both professionally and as part of our family here at Colliers in the Greater Philadelphia region. I look forward to witnessing this new cohort’s fresh perspectives to real estate that will lead our industry into the future.” said Mary Chan, head of Operations with Colliers in Philadelphia.

Adam Gorodesky

Adam joined Colliers early this summer from Alterra Property Group where he focused on industrial, multifamily, and mixed-use properties, giving him a deep understanding of financial performance factors in a variety of commercial real estate submarkets and product types. Prior to Alterra, he spent several years as a senior auditor with the Philadelphia office of the big four accounting firm KPMG, specializing in the Power & Utilities sector, auditing industrial clients and Fortune 500 companies. Adam earned his BS and Masters in Accountancy from Penn State. As a CPA, Adam is uniquely qualified to deliver trusted guidance to his clients. He has recently accepted an invitation to join NAIOP’s Developing Leaders mentor program, giving him direct exposure to many of the prominent developers and industry leaders in the Greater Philadelphia region.

Adam will work alongside Richard Gorodesky in the industrial division, focused on sales and leasing in the Philadelphia industrial market.

Kyla Murphy

Prior to Colliers, Kyla served as a Real Estate Analyst with Lidl US, assisting in acquisition and development in the Greater Philadelphia region for the aggressively expanding grocer. Kyla has also worked for boutique commercial real estate brokerage Rittenhouse Realty Advisors, first as a Market Research Analyst and then as an associate broker focused on urban retail. Kyla began her commercial real estate career at the Keystone Appraisal Company and received her bachelor's degree in Finance and International Business from The Haub School of Business at Saint Joseph's University.

Ali Sayer

Ali comes to Colliers from PREIT where she served as a Specialty Leasing Manager for both the Plymouth Meeting Mall and Exton Square Mall. While working with PREIT, she served as a New Business Development Associate covering half of the company's portfolio. In this position she gained valuable experience in deal making with national tenants like Peloton and Outback Steakhouse. Ali also brings a unique insider's perspective on big box retailers. Before working for PREIT, Ali held positions in e-commerce merchandising and buying for major brands such as Macy's and Bed Bath & Beyond. Ali began her retail career working for Aeropostale's corporate office in New York City.

Both Kyla and Ali will focus on both retail Tenant and Landlord representation in the Greater Philadelphia Region as associates with Colliers' urban retail team led by retail veteran Larry Steinberg. The group focuses primarily on shops and boutiques of Philadelphia's Center City and Main Line communities.

William Tunstall

William comes to Colliers from The Bloom Organization in Southern New Jersey providing expert on-site management of the 32 buildings within the Twinbridge Industrial Park, for Colliers' client Wharton Equity. With a background and leadership positions held in construction, Bill transitioned to property management in 2012. His hands-on supervision of staff provides tenants timely responses to any property related issues or concerns. Bill is a resident of Berlin, New Jersey and has been a long-time mentor and coach to area children. Specifically, he is a former coach with USA Ice Hockey – Level II and AAU Roller Hockey programs.
